Demystifying Financial Reporting and Budgeting

March 13-15, 2015

KPMG in India (KPMG) and Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University (PDPU) are pleased to announce the Management Development Programme (MDP) on Demystifying Financial Reporting and Budgeting

MDP BACKGROUND

Modern organizations operate in an increasingly integrated environment. Non-finance managers / functional heads can no longer ignore the financial implications of their strategic decisions. The complexities of modern businesses coupled with a dynamic financial framework, make it difficult for non-finance executives to keep pace with the changes. Gujarat has shown remarkable industrial development in the last decade. The rise in business has been coupled with an increase in the demand for professionals with knowledge of finance irrespective of the functional vertical they work in. The MDP has been designed to empower participants to appreciate the financial implications of their decisions and importance of working in an increasingly cohesive working environment.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS

At the end of the MDP, the participants will be able to understand:

- Concepts of accounting with updates on recent developments in the world of accounting.
- Financial statements and analyze them for strategic decisions.
- Key aspects of direct and indirect taxes, FEMA, International taxation, transfer pricing norms, GST along with the relevant recent judgements.
- Key changes brought in by The Companies Act, 2013 with it's impact analysis.
- Strategic decisions based on analysis of costing.
- Methods of managing working capital and using fund management as a tool for budgetary control.
- Capital and revenue budgeting.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

CEOs

Entrepreneurs

Senior management of companies

PROGRAMME VENUE AND FEES

Venue:

The MDP would be conducted at state of the art PDPU Campus, Gandhinagar.

Fees:

The fees per participant would be INR 20,000/- excluding the applicable taxes. The fees is inclusive of study material, refreshments and lunch.
